Anniversary accolade for Norwich's Almary green

Almary Green's 10th anniversary as Norwich-based independent financial advisers received an added bonus with a major accolade at a prestigious industry awards ceremony. The company won the Good Advice Award in the Best Tax and Estate Planner category at the Investment Life & Pensions Moneyfacts Awards 2011.

Managing Director Carl Lamb collected the award before an audience of more than 400 people from the elite of the financial sector at a gala lunch at the London Marriott Hotel, Grosvenor Square. TV presenter Natasha Kaplinsky was guest speaker.
